

CHILD ABUSE
PREVENTION ASSOCIATION
2010 ANNUAL REPORT

I came to the shelter frightened, feeling so overwhelmed by everything that had happened to me. Not only did I find a safe and “home-like” environment, but it helped me mature greatly. You taught me to believe in myself, even when no one else would.

MISSION

CAPA breaks the destructive cycle of child abuse and neglect by equipping parents, children and their caregivers with necessary skills, knowledge and values.

VISION

All children deserve to be loved, nurtured and kept safe from intentional and unintentional harm.

CAPA's success relies on the leadership of its staff, Board of Directors and dedicated volunteers. It requires many different skills and talents to administer and direct the operations, programs, fundraisers and advocacy outreach to fulfill our mission and vision.

CAPA is governed by a Board of Directors but, in addition to the opportunity to serve on the Board, volunteer leadership is needed on several standing committees. These committees include the following:

Advocacy: Members serve as a catalyst for child abuse prevention activities including KidFest, Angel Walk and legislative initiatives that could impact child abuse prevention efforts.

Communications: Members assist with external communications including Speakers' Bureau, website and newsletter development.

Finance and Audit: Members review monthly financial performance and report to the board quarterly as well as review the annual audit on behalf of the board.

Fund Development/Fundraising: Members are charged with event planning and execution and with raising non-traditional contributions (i.e. endowments) to help provide the necessary funds to support CAPA's programs and outreach efforts.

Operations Management: Members may serve on three sub-committees that assist staff in the areas of shelter operations, risk management (including policies and procedures related to our overall services) and thrift shop operations.

CAPA is always looking for committed volunteers. If you have an interest in serving on one of the standing committees, contact the CAPA office at capa714@earthlink.net or 843.524.4350.

Susan Cato, CAPA's Executive Director, was honored in May for her twenty-five years of faithful service. Susan provided leadership as the organization evolved from a local non-profit grassroots community organization to a powerful and influential watchdog organization that advocates and provides a voice for children in our community. We extend our heartfelt thanks for her passion and dedication to the eradication of child abuse and neglect.

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT & EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Organizations, when faced with what may seem to be overwhelming obstacles and adversity, can be energized and encouraged to dig deep and use the opportunity to find strength and perseverance to strategically do what is needed to continue to meet the needs of their community. 2010 was a year of incredible challenges for CAPA but, as a result, we believe we have grown and benefitted as we have examined, and reexamined our institutional values, beliefs and operations.

South Carolina's critical shortage of funding has crippled the child welfare system leaving vulnerable populations, like the children we serve, at greater risk for child abuse and neglect. The South Carolina Department of Social Services (DSS), as required by the Governor and the Chairmen of the Senate Finance and House Ways and Means Committee, worked collaboratively with stakeholders from not-for-profits around the state to determine the feasibility of outsourcing some child welfare initiatives. CAPA's executive director and the director of the Open Arms Shelter for Abused and Neglected Children served on sub-committees of this study. CAPA's board and staff have also collaborated with both government and private agencies to examine and analyze child abuse and neglect data, reporting trends, partner roles and the state of child abuse and neglect on a local, state and national level. Joining CAPA in voicing concerns of children were the members of the 14th Judicial Circuit Multidisciplinary Treatment Team.

CAPA developed new communication strategies for telling our story which resulted in a Mission Brief document, retraining of speakers and new tools for program delivery which included a new website, production of a video and a new PowerPoint presentation. Use of social media and networks has become a vital way to get our message and information out to the public.

Reduction in our funding resulted in a staff reduction of 3.6 employees and a system of furloughing requiring the entire staff to reduce hours and pay by 10-20%. The overall 2010 expenses were cut 8% which impacted programs as well as maintenance.

Community partnerships through churches, neighborhood community groups, businesses and civic groups provided 12 days of caring which resulted in thousands of dollars saved for interior and exterior maintenance projects and upgrades at the shelter and outreach center. A one-time grant from the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) provided funds for removing the shelter's crumbling popcorn ceilings and reducing monthly utility fees by improving our HVAC duct systems and installing a high efficiency washer and dryer. Pulte's Sun City Hilton Head and the Haven staff and residents spent four days painting the inside of the shelter.

When faced with a surge of child fatalities, we called on our partners to identify ways to reduce preventable deaths. As a result, community professionals received training about the dangers of co-sleeping as well as other safety issues. Consequently, young pregnant women have a heightened awareness and will soon be able to engage in a new CAPA program called Cribs for Kids thanks to a generous donation from the Wardle Family Foundation.

2010 was a trying year and we are looking forward to a better, brighter 2011. The success of CAPA would not be possible without our many supporters. These partners include the Beaufort County Council and Government, The United Way of the Lowcountry, businesses, churches, organizations, schools, individuals, and the board and staff of CAPA. Every partner helps attain our goal of erasing child abuse and neglect. Small acts kindness or little gestures that might be meaningless to you make a world of difference or impact on others. Thank you for your support, both past and future.

Take This Dare

Blood of innocence burning in the air
 People that walk by don't even care
 The pain that many children bare
 That will always tear
 Them up
 In this warfare
 You are not at all aware
 Of this pain that will never spare
 A single child's life from abusing everywhere
 That's why I gonna dare
 You to try and defeat this bear
 Children should be able to wear
 The happiness of having a mom and dad
 So take this dare
 And for once repair
 Little children's hearts everywhere
 So they don't ever attend
 This child abuse stage ever again

*Written by Caleb, age 13,
 Beaufort County resident*

YEAR IN REVIEW: TOP 10 OF 2010

CAPA outreach programs trained 224 adults mandated to report suspected child abuse and neglect, conducted 114 parent education and support programs with 784 participants, presented 389 multi-session best-practice education classes for 7,007 youth and reached 7,182 additional adults and children through educational events and awareness fairs.

The Exchange Club of Beaufort continued to be a powerful partner for CAPA in 2010 - sponsoring the 16th Annual KidFest, the 18th Annual Ghost Tours and the 23rd Annual Denim & Pearls Auction.

The Open Arms Shelter celebrated its 25th Anniversary, serving 40 children and youth who averaged 66 days in residence. The length of stay was up by 29%. The number of placements was down by 29% which reflects DSS' 2009 goal to utilize in-home treatment plans and foster homes, especially for children under 12 who were not part of a sibling group. We served more large sibling groups than previous years. Our daily average attendance of eight included an average of two children between birth and six years.

The 16th Annual KidFest increased the number of participating partners by 20%. Over 4,500 people came out to Cross Creek Shopping Center for a day of fun and learning.

CAPA's Closet had a record year in sales. Our indispensable volunteers and staff worked tirelessly. We were fortunate to have been the only Beaufort County site selected for Disney's Give a Day, Get a Day project which resulted in an additional 620 volunteer hours. CAPA continues to search for a permanent home for the thrift shop - either a piece of property on which to build or an existing commercial building.

CAPA's Christmas Wish Tree Program provided gifts for over 260 Beaufort County children who, without CAPA's help, may not have received gifts this year. The community showed an outpouring of holiday spirit and put big smiles on hundreds of faces.

The Beaufort community really "stepped up" in support of the 2nd Beaufort Angel Walk which brought in over $21,000, the 16th Annual Waste Management CAPA Golf Challenge netted over $16,000 and new in 2010 - more than 700 shrimp were adopted by CAPA supporters in the Sea Island Rotary Club's Adopt - a - Shrimp Race netting CAPA over $7,000. Plans are underway to hold an inaugural Bluffton Angel Walk in April. See calendar of events for 2011 dates.

The loss of a $66,500 adolescent pregnancy prevention grant in the third quarter resulted in the loss of one full-time employee and two part-time consultants. Thanks to funding from the S.C. Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy and a grant from the Beaufort County Human Services Alliance programming will continue but on a limited basis. Beaufort County Schools are currently assessing the implementation of best-practice comprehensive health education curricula in the 2011/12 school year.

Volunteers donated a total of 12,402 hours which equates to $201,657 in service. (Based on an hourly rate of $16.26 for South Carolina as provided by Independent Sector.)

CAPA has a brand new video to share to help tell our story thanks to the efforts of our Communications Committee, WTOC's Jaime Dailey, Sarah Rauch and volunteers from the P.S. We Love You group.

P.S. We Love You participant

Thank you for taking time from your own families to show children that you care. The love you shared with me will be greatly appreciated and remembered forever.

Make a Financial Contribution (by cash, check, credit card, securities, pledges, trusts, annuities, bequests) to help sustain our mission and receive tax benefits.

- CAPA's Endowment Fund with Community Foundation of the Lowcountry (CFL). CFL is a tax-exempt public charitable foundation that manages donated funds to ensure that the critical CAPA programs and services of today will be supported well into the future. Please consider contributing to CAPA's Endowment Fund with CFL in honor of a loved one for a special birthday, anniversary or significant life event, or in memoriam upon the passing of a loved one.
- Tangible donations of stocks, insurance policies, cars, boats, mobile homes, real estate properties. Consider a tax-deductible donation of personal property to CAPA's programs.
- Donations-in-kind from local businesses. We are always in need of goods and services from local businesses. Do you have a lawn service, painting service, electrical service, towing service, cleaning service, catering service or any other service that you'd like to offer to CAPA? The goods or services from your business are eligible for tax benefits at fair market value.
- Estate plans. Consider including CAPA in your estate plan. Your gift of assets from your life will be the gift that continues to offer sustenance to making a new life for those children in need.

CAPA helped to shape my husband and his siblings who were all raised in foster care into the wonderful adults and parents they are now.
